Monica Fund Growing By Leaps And Bounds

Interest is still running high in putting the Monica Fund campaign over the top. Still mounting with about one thousand dollars raised by the Arlington Elks through its recent benefit show, all citizens are urged to do their bit to swell the fund still higher.

A public spirited committee in nearby Somerville announced last week that through a midnight show put on in Somerville, the sum of over one thousand dollars was raised, while the sum of $522 was raised through schools and $92.48 was added to this worthy fund through a benefit baseball game. Co-Chairmen of the Somerville drive were Jay Concannon and Al Hayden, with Mayor Bradley acting as honorary chairman.

The Arlington Heights Tower Association brought out the announcement last week that they proposed to run a benefit dance for this worthy cause, the exact date for which will be announced later.

Checks may be made payable to the fund, and sent to Walter T. Chamberlain, treasurer, c-o Arlington Cooperative Bank.

Still swelling the fund, the Arlington Red Devils played Waltham General hospital in a benefit football game for the Monica Cotter fund, last Sunday at 2:30 on the Warren A. Peirce field. The game netted the fund the handsome sum of

Local Member Honored By Emblem Convention

The Supreme Emblem Club of the United States gathered in convention at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, Massachusetts, on October 3, 4 and 5, 1948. Guests were present from almost every state in the Union, as well as Alaska and the Panama Canal Zone.

Sunday afternoon was taken up with registration and a Social Hour which was followed by the President's Dinner, at which the Presidents of the individual clubs were seated at one table. After the dinner an entertainment was presented in Convention Hall, entitled "Living Madonnas" a most beautiful and inspiring spectacle. Famous Madonnas, painted by the old masters, were depicted by members of the clubs.

Monday was taken up with business meetings and the election of officers.

In the evening the Convention Banquet was held, which was attended by the delegates and friends of the Supreme Officers.

After the Banquet a most enjoyable Costume Party was held in the Ball Room.

Tuesday morning memorial services were conducted in memory of the departed sisters. Arlington had a special interest in this, as one of our departed sisters, Mrs. Gertude Walsh, was remembered at the service.

Once again the Press is pleased to present to its readers, John Starr, of 7 Thorndike street, whose photograph appears on the cover of "Child's Life" magazine for the month of November, as one of the best known youngsters of this section, having been featured in these columns previously many times for his outstanding record in the sale of war bonds. During World War II, he won fame as one of the youngest war bond salesmen in the country, appearing in all eight national drives, and selling over a million dollars' worth of United States bonds.

John is one of the youngest hospital performers, in singing and tap dancing, and has made over thirteen hundred programs through out the country. He has visited the mental hospital wards throughout the width and breadth of the land to entertain, in many cases where the grown-ups have refused to appear.

This youngster is loved by all the boys for his happy smile and cheerful personality. He has been made an honorary captain of the Air Force at Pecos Field, Texas, Honorary member of the Bataan and Corregidor Division.

John Starr has the reputation of being one of Harry Conover's best photogenic models, where he has modelled for the best known artists of national fame in New York City.

Aside from his professional successes, we think this young man is worthy of the admiration and emulation of every patriotic citizen, whether young or old, in his worthy efforts to bring added sunshine and happiness into the lives of those less fortunate.

"Red Feather Girl"

Miss Joan Juffre, 35 Orvis Road, Arlington, has been chosen as Arlington's "Red Feather Girl." Fully typifying the spirit of the current Red Feather campaign, she was voted top honors over a group of typical Arlington beauties.

The Arlington Red Feather Girl contest was held on the evening of Friday, October 15th, in the Junior Library hall, instead of the Capitol theatre, as scheduled, for Wednesday of this week. The reason for the change was because of the Boston semi-finals which were held Tuesday, and it was necessary to adjust the local plans to conform to the Boston arrangement.

Chosen as Arlington Red Feather Girl, was Miss Joan Juffre, of 35 Orvis road, Arlington.

The judges included Mr. Joseph Purcell, Mr. Arthur J. Mansfield, and Mr. Leonard Wood. Mrs. Mildred E. Griffin, was chairman of the Red Feather Girl contest, for the town of Arlington.

Sees Neighborliness Better Than Over-All Charity Set-Up

Archbishop Lauds Old-Time Friendliness As Real Spirit Of Vital Red Feather Services

Editorial The Wolf In Sheep's Clothing

Does the majority of doctors in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts favor the passage of Referendum No. 4? Its supporters say, "Yes," but don't be misled. Here are the facts.

There are 9,000 resident physicians in Massachusetts. 6,600 of them are members of the Massachusetts Medical Society. The Society voices the opinions of its members.

And the Society has taken no action on this referendum. Why? Because it believes that Referendum No. 4 NOT necessary for the protection of life and health.

The Society would be the first to move in support of Referendum No. 4 if it thought it vital for the preservation of public health.

The experience of thousands of Massachusetts' doctors proves that on purely medical grounds there is no need for the bill. The research of their associates in cardiology and obstetrics supports this stand.

Another great health body in Massachusetts takes no stand on Referendum No. 4, because it, too, believes it has nothing to do with health. The fifth annual legislative health conference of the Massachusetts Central Health Council, sponsored jointly by the council and the Legislative Recess Commission on Public Health, gives the issue summary dismissal.

Take a good look at the record.

Dr. Frederick L. Good, chief of staff of obstetrics at the Boston City Hospital, cites 2,510 deliveries in 1947 with the death of only one mother and that not due to pregnancy.

And look at the birth figures for 1946 in Massachusetts. Dr. Good reports that 96,903 mothers were delivered with only 125 deaths. Again, not one of these mothers died of pregnancy. This was the smallest number of maternal deaths in the history of the Commonwealth.

And how about the loopholes in the proposed law? Why a doctor does not even have to make a diagnosis that the patient's health or life is endangered!

That shows it up for what it is. An attempt to legalize contraception for any one married or unmarried, who wishes to practice it.

Who is to be the judge? Who is going to control this Frankenstein monster? Who is going to handle the wholesale subterfuges, like birth control propaganda clinics, under the guise of public health?

This is no simple bill. It is not written in straight-forward language. It does not mean what it says. It is a between-the-lines bill. A veritable wolf in sheep's clothing.

Let us keep the contraceptive racket, a profitable two hundred and fifty million dollar racket, out of Massachusetts by voting down Referendum No. 4 on Election Day.

Let us "X" it off the ballot for good. Let's really X-tinguish Referendum No. 4 on November 2 with more than a million resounding "NO's."

"No over-all charity set up can replace the old time policy of friendliness and neighborliness," Archbishop Richard J. Cushing stated at a recent meeting held in Cambridge. This annual Red Feather Drive of The Greater Boston Community Fund, is seeking to raise $6,950,000 to support more than three hundred services vital to the health, well being and future of man, women and children of our community. It merits the cooperation of each and every individual.

No individual can shirk this duty to his fellow humans. To shirk it is to take a step backward toward the almoner who distributed the king's largesse, backward toward the bleak days of the survival of the fittest. In this enlightened in humanitarianism to abandon country, we have advanced too far our underprivileged, our sick, our crippled, our indigent and our needy, to the law of the jungle. The social services supported by our Community Fund mark the high tide of our kind of civilization. They seek to make people fit to survive. They do the work that public agencies cannot do. They are worthy the sincere support of each one of us.

Red Feathers will abound in a brilliant splash of outdoor display, vying with autumn's gorgeous coloring, as metropolitan cities and towns swing into the opening of the Red Feather campaign next week. All kinds of outdoor advertising and window displays, plus the generous appeal of local newspapers and to the publications will forecast the imperative need for support of community-wide Red Feather services in 1949.

Advance solicitation of special givers is the current, local pace, setter and Chairman Edmund L. Frost is training every effort in Arlington for all-out returns to lead the way for successful general solicitation to follow.

Local Man Is Inventor Of Automatic Door Opener

On September 28, 1948, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,450,021 on an "Automatic Door Operator" to Max Knobel, Arlington, Mass. and Cyrus T. Schirmer, Wayland, Mass.

This invention pertains to improvements in apparatus for automatically opening and closing garage doors, and it may perhaps be best described by citing its mode of operation and the advantages attributed to it.

Thus, assuming that the doors are closed and the car drives up for access, the driver stops the vehicle at an approximate designated position in the driveway. Thereupon, he turns the headlights on and off three times; and the blinking effect, thus produced, causes a phototube or light-sensitive device to set into motion the electrical equipment that opens the door. To close the latter, a handmanipulated button, located conveniently within the garage, is pressed three times. When the door is to be opened to permit egress of the car, the above mentioned steps are reversed.

According to Messrs. Knobel and Schirmer, their invention is superior in its action to the prior equipment of this type. For example, its functions equally well in daylight and at night, and is not affected by the accidental illumination of the phototube such as might occur from the sun shining on it or by illumination from a passing vehicle. Their construction is such that by blinking the lights a fourth time, the driver may, from his seated position, turn on the lamps in the garage before driving therein, a special lock switch is provided which prevents any tampering with the door after it is closed.

Messrs. Knobel and Schirmer state that the principal importance of their arrangement is the fact that it is sensitive only to the blinking operation. Further more, it affords positive movement of the door with a minimum hazard of false actuation from accidental causes, without roadway contacts, without the necessity of applying any special contrivances to the car, and without any appreciable power drain.

This patent has been assigned by Messrs. Knobel and Schirmer to Redmond Company, Inc.

Laurence Curtis Has Remarkable Background

The background of a lifetime of careful training and broad experience has made Laurence Curtis, the present Republican State Treasurer and Receiver General, a man who is unusually well fitted to continue in this important office.

Mr. Curtis graduated from Harvard College in 1916 and entered the U. S. Foreign Diplomatic Service. When the United States became embroiled in World War I, in 1917, he joined the infant Naval Air Service where he served with distinction until 1919. An unfortunate plane crash during the war cost him the loss of one leg. Ever since then he has been vitally interested in veterans and their problems.

Upon his return from overseas he studied at Harvard Law School where he edited the Harvard Law Review. Upon graduation in 1921 he became secretary to Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the U. S. Supreme Court. This experience in Washington continued until his return to Boston, in 1925, when he assumed the duties of Assistant United States Attorney.

In 1930 Curtis became a member of the Boston City Council, serving until his election, in 1932, as a Representative in the Massachusetts House of Representatives. Four years later he became a Massachusetts Senator, a post he held until 1942.

His election to the present position of State Treasurer and Receiver General followed in 1946, and he has administered this office with outstanding ability. Curtis has successfully sold the largest bond issue in the history of Massachusetts and on the most favorable terms. State funds have been wisely invested to secure the best return to his employers the Citizens of Massachusetts. Disbursements involving large sums have been competently handled without fault or complaint. His efficient office management has been instrumental in returning sizeable amounts of his unused appropriations to the State Treasury. He is a practicing advocate of the merit system, and under his stewardship career employees are retained and vacancies are filled from within the office.

Mr. Curtis's background of military and public service since 1916 has marked him as a man of remarkable ability and integrity. His extensive experience is reflected in the skillful handling of his present position as State Treasurer.

The Charles R. Duhigs Observe 51st Anniversary

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Duhig, of 35 Johnson rd. Arlington, on the occasion of their 51st wedding anniversary, which they observed last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Duhig were the last couple to be married in the Old Universalist Church in Milford, which was later destroyed by fires. The couple were the recipients of many gifts and cards from their many friends.

There are two sons, John M. Duhig, of Washington, D. C., and Charles W. Duhig, of Cambridge; also a daughter, Mrs. John H. Maxwell, of Glen Cove, Long Island N. Y. There are seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Arlington Girl Betrothed To Medford Man

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie V. Winship, of St. Petersburg, Florida, formerly of Arlington, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Winship, of 1 Henderson street, Arlington, to Mr. John F. Norton, of 14 Warren St., Medford.

Miss Winship was educated in the Arlington schools, and is now employed by the Gilman Brothers of Boston.

Her fiancé served with the United States Navy for a period of three years in the Pacific area, and is now associated with the Cyclone Fence Company, of Malden. No date has been set for the wedding.

Letter To Editor

Dear Sir:

For some years, one day has been selected annually as a special occasion for encouraging the people of our country to become better acquainted with their Navy and its activities. October 27 was designated initially as "Navy Day" because it is the date on which the original Bill to create a Fleet was introduced into Congress in 1775. It is also the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, often referred to as "Father of the modern Navy".

This year the Boston Naval Shipyard will present an extensive program of exhibits the products of its shops and the operations of certain manufacturing processes. In addition, it is expected that certain ships berthed at the Shipyard will be available for inspection. The people of Boston and vicinity are being invited to visit the Shipyard and acquaint themselves with its functions.

The Boston Naval Shipyard, employing upwards of 10,000 people, and with an annual payroll in excess of $30,000,000, is the biggest single industry in the City of Boston. It has occurred to me that you may be interested in some particular feature and purpose of this establishment. If so, you are cordially invited to visit the Shipyard at any time between the hours of 9:00 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. on October 27, when each trade will be functioning.

Signed:
W. McL. Hague

Resigns As Police Officer

At the recent meeting of the Arlington board of selectmen the members accepted the resignation of Patrolman Armando E. Lucarelli, to take effect on October 15, with great regret. The officer tendered his resignation from the local force in order to accept a similar position with the Metropolitan District Police. The vacancy in the local force thus caused, will be filled at a later date.

Republican Drive In High Gear Here

With Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, presidential nominee, making a major address in Boston, candidates on the state ticket criss-crossing the Commonwealth in a series of rallies and receptions and making numerous radio addresses, and tons of literature setting forth the issues of the campaign and the qualifications of the G. O. P. nominees being distributed. The Republican drive for votes will go into high gear next week.

Governor Dewey's invasion of Massachusetts will be the focal point of the national campaign in the final week of the campaign. His major address will be delivered in the Boston Arena the night of Oct. 28. It will be broadcast over a nation-wide network.

Prior to his arrival in the Hub Governor Dewey plans to make brief addresses in Pittsfield, Springfield and Worcester. On the following day, before leaving the Bay State, he will make appearances in several cities and towns in southern Massachusetts. The times and places for these appearances will be announced later when his schedule is complete.

Determined to bring the campaign to a colorful and vigorous conclusion, the state ticket nominees will be heard from the Berkshires to Cape Cod. Rallies are being scheduled in a score of cities and towns. The dates and places will be announced in the newspapers as rapidly as arrangements are completed.

Gov. Robert F. Bradford and U. S. Senator Leverett Saltonstall, seeking re-election, will spearhead the drive. With them will be Lieut. Gov. Arthur W. Coolidge, Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook, State Treasurer Laurence Curtis, Atty. Gen. Clarence A. Barnes, all seeking re-election, and Russell A. Wood, nominee for state auditor. Legislative, county, congressional and councillor candidates will join them in their respective areas.

Convinced that the voters should have full knowledge on all the issues of the campaign and an opportunity to know their candidates and their abilities, the extensive national and state radio campaign which has been arranged will virtually blanket the airways during the final week. These talks will also be announced in the newspapers.

Supplementing these rally appearances and radio talks, informative literature on the Republican platform, the achievements of the party and thumbnail sketches of the candidates have been prepared for distribution to the voters.

The Republican campaign, according to State Headquarters, has and will continue to stress unity and teamwork of the party candidates as contrasted with the "lone wolf" activities of the Democratic state candidates, who have not teamed up in their advertising campaigns and have veered away from any public agitation with the Democratic national ticket. The absence of any banners or billboards with reference to President Truman has caused considerable comment among the voters, it reports.

Miss Boesi Bride Of Walter S. Caldwell Jr.

At one of the season's most delightful wedding ceremonies, held in the Grace Congregational church in Framingham, last Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock, Miss Florence Boesi, daughter of Mrs. George Boesi and the late Mr. Boesi, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Walter S. Caldwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Caldwell, of 12 Chandler Street, Arlington Rev. r. Bernard T. Drew officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother Kurt, the bride was radiant in a white of white roses and stephanotis, and train. She carried a bridal bouquet wedding gown of ivory satin, and her finger tip veil was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms and seed pearls. A sister of the bride, Miss Ruth Boesi, served as maid of honor, and the bridegroom was attended by Mr. Richard Judd, of New Haven, Conn., as best man.

The ushers included: Mr. Clayton Blevins, of Cambridge, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Mr. John Lindbohm, of Cohasset.

Following the ceremony, a reception and catered supper were held in the church parlors.

Following a motor trip to Atlantic City and Niagara Falls, Mr. Caldwell, who is a consulting engineer, and his bride, will make their home in Connecticut.

Chester L. Somers Has Sound Business Objectives

Chester L. Somers, 1027 Broadway, West Somerville, one of the Republican nominees for State Representative from the 25th Middlesex district (Wards 6-7 of Somerville and Precincts 1, 3 and 5 of Arlington) presents the following objectives towards which he will work:

Reduction of real estate taxes and valuations; tax changes that will bring about greater benefits to the local citizen; immediate initiation of beneficial housing laws; labor laws beneficial to both labor and management; the improvement and liberalizing of old age assistance laws; improvement of our educational system; the systematic reduction of juvenile delinquency, and a program of adequate highway construction.

Mr. Somers, who is 31, was born in 1917 and attended the Somerville public schools, graduating in 1937 from Somerville High School. Upon his graduation from High school, he was employed by one of the largest banks in Boston and has been there ever since with the exception of his army service.

Mr. Somers enlisted in the 101st Combat Engineers, 26th Division, the local National Guard unit of Somerville in 1940 and was inducted into Federal Service in January, 1941. Most of his army service was spent as an instructor of Engineer Units for overseas combat.

In 1943 he married Harriet Craig Proctor of Gardner, Mass. They have two children, Susan Kerr and Joane Proctor.

Mr. Somers is a member of the Republican City Committee, treasurer of the Ward 7 Republican Committee, and a member of Arlington Post 35 of the American PTA Military Whist Mon.

A military whist was held on gymnasium, under the direction of the Ways and Means Committee Recently, in the Parmenter school of the PTA, consisting of Mrs. John Buckley, Mrs. Arthur Grohe, Mrs. Elliott Perkins, Mrs. James Walsh, Mrs. Thomas Welsh, Mrs. Elbert Woodis and Mrs. Leonard Dozier.

Legion.

In an editorial appearing in this paper on September 9, 1948 we stated the following:

Chester L. Somers, would, in our opinion, make an excellent state representative.

Employed in one of the largest banks in Boston, Mr. Somers is not a typical politician. He has never run for office before but has, however, given much thought to needful legislation and has laid out for himself a sound, enlightened program of action which he is prepared to carry out should he be elected.

A veteran and a family man, he believes that greater efficiency in government can and will check the growing burden of taxes, and if for no other reason than this, we would like to see him get a chance to speak up in the House of Representatives for voters of the 25th Middlesex district. A vote for Somers is a wise vote.

At the first meeting of Hardy P. T. A. Mr. Lester Dearborn, educator and marriage counselor, told parents of Hardy School pupils that a child must be happy in order to learn well and easily. To help your child to find happiness give him a sense of security and by all means do not fail to show him thru a reasonable display of affection, that he is loved. Mr. Dearborn spoke on the subject "Preparing the Child for Marriage" and said that this preparation starts in the cradle. The hope of the country for a lower divorce rate lies in more happy marriage. This hope can be realized only if our children grow up with well adjusted personalities, learning as they grow that happy marriage can be a possibility for all those who come to it with good training for life's experiences.

Mr. Joseph S. Vahey
268 Oakland Avenue

Dear Mr. Vahey:

I thought you might be interested in the voting record of Representatives Hollis M. Gott, and Hallem T. Ring on important social and labor legislation during the 1947-48 session of the Great and General Court.

Out of fourteen of the most important measures affecting working men and women they voted as follows:

Representative Hollis M. Gott
Good Votes 1, Bad Votes 13, Absent 0.
Hallem T. Ring
Good Votes 2, Bad Votes 10, Absent 2.

It is self-evident that Representatives Gott and Ring have not demonstrated much concern or consideration for the problems of working men and women in their district.

Very truly yours,

Special Cachets And Postmarks To Mark Navy Day Oct. 27

The Post Office Department, in cooperation with the Navy Department, is planning to publicize and honor Navy Day on October 27th by means of a special postmark and cachet to be issued at both the Boston Naval Shipyard and the Receiving Station at Boston.

The words "Navy Day" will be shown on the die of all mail canceled at these two Navy installations between now and October 27. In addition, a special cachet has been created for this occasion but will be affixed only to covers postmarked at these installations on Navy Day. The same identical design will be used at both the U.S. Naval Shipyard and the U.S. Navy Receiving Station, but the name of the mailing postoffice will be shown beneath the cachet in each case.

Postal officials believe that collectors will want to secure the postmark and cachet at each of these Navy installations.

In order to further carry out the theme of Navy Day, Acting Postmaster Francis A. Crowley suggests that all covers be prepared with the blue "Navy" three cent stamp, which was issued some time ago. This Navy postage stamp may still be obtained at all postoffices in the Boston Postal District.

There is no limit to the number of covers which may be presented for this postmark and Navy Day cachet, but each cover should be marked to indicate whether to be given the postmark and cachet at the Boston Naval Shipyard or the Receiving Station. The address on each cover must be placed in the lower right hand corner of the envelope to permit the affixing of the cachet which will require a space to the left of the address side of each envelope. Postage on covers must be fully prepaid.

All covers should be sent to the Postmaster, Public Relations Section, Boston 9, Mass.

Navy Day is also the birthday of the late President, Theodore Roosevelt and a new three cent postage stamp honoring the Rough Riders will be placed on first sale at Prescott, Arizona on October 27th.

Writer Claims Press Biased On Birth Control

To The Editor
Arlington, Press.

I am writing in answer to your editorial of October 14, concerning Birth Control. Never have I read such a biased piece of propaganda! For those people who do not believe in Birth Control—let them practice in what they believe and in what their religion tells them. However, this is a democratic nation which is dedicated to the freedom of the individual. Therefore, I say, Referendum Four should be allowed to be made into law so that those people who desire information and the practice of Birth Control may have that personal freedom within the law. Massachusetts is the laughing stock of the country because of its backward, straight laced, narrow minded attitude on this question. It is about time that we, here in Massachusetts, were given the same individual rights as the other states were held Tuesday afternoon, at effect those individuals who would themselves practice Birth Control, but it certainly would be a boom to that part of humanity who desire to do so.

Yours sincerely,
S. T.

P. S.—If your newspaper is "An Independent Unbiased Newspaper," this letter will be in print.

Vets To Promote Candidacy Of Joseph F. McEvoy

A Veterans' Committee has voluntarily formed to promote the candidacy of Joseph F. McEvoy, Jr. for Representative from the 25th Middlesex District.

The Committee is composed of Veterans of both World Wars who have joined together to work for the election of Mr. McEvoy as Representative. There are also several women veterans who are active workers in the organization. All veterans who reside in the 25th of West Somerville and East Arlington, and who are interested in Middlesex District, which consists of honest, intelligent and constructive government are eligible to join.

The Committee through its Co-Chairmen, James E. Peoples of 20 Amsden Street, Arlington and Carl Johnson of 78 Clarendon Avenue, Somerville, issued the following statement:

"It is wise to judge a candidate for public office by his actions and not merely by his words. In applying that test to those seeking to be one of the two Representatives from the 25th Middlesex District, we found that former Representative McEvoy had an excellent record of accomplishment, not merely as far as Veterans' rights and interests were concerned but also as far as the welfare of the community as a whole was concerned.

"His four years of service on the oard of Aldermen during the years 1942-1945 and his term in the Legislature in 1945-1946 afforded us an opportunity to judge the man and not just the candidate. We have found him to be always sympathetic to the problems of the veterans and one interested in their welfare at all times.

The various bills that he sponsored and his vote on legislation that came before him is definite evidence of his sincerity and integrity.

"His record was praised and commended not only by veterans, but also by labor, businessmen, home owners and taxpayers.

The Mattia Casazzas Hold Open House On Golden Anniversary

On Sunday afternoon, from three o'clock, and lasting through Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Mattia J. Casazza, of 15 Amherst Street, Arlington, held open house and reception for their many friends and neighbors, in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

Surrounded by their family and their many friends, and amid the beautiful decorations of fall flowers and colored streamers, the happy couple, assisted by their eight children, opened their many gifts and congratulatory messages received. A social hour, with a delicious collation, followed the opening of the gifts, and dancing was enjoyed as a fitting climax to the happy occasion.

Both natives of Naples, Italy, the couple have been prominent residents of this town for the past forty years. Mr. Casazza has for many years engaged in the shoe business, and is now enjoying a well-earned retirement. He is an active member of the Arlington post, Sons of Italy.

The children who honored their hundreds of friends, on this happy occasion, were Charles, Joseph Rachel, Thomas, Frank Agnes, Edward, and John, all wellknown and popular member of the Arlington police force. All members of the Arlington K. of C.

The staff of this newspaper joins with the many friends of the couple in wishing them joyous returns of the day, and many more years of happy wedded life among us.

Round Up Meeting By Cub Pack Members

A Round Up Meeting for parents and prospective cubs for Cub Pack 88 was held at the Peirce School last Friday night. The Cub Master, Dan O'Grady welcomed the parents and prospective cubs, and explained the purpose and advantages of the organization, and stated that the Committee expected to secure enough volunteer Den Mothers to take care of the boys interested in becoming Cubs.

Wayne Parsons of Den 1 played several piano selections. Mrs. Strachan's Den 4 put on a very funny skit called Doctor Bawhorse. Masters Jack Prescott and Roger Wessells received their Bob Cat Pins.

Visit Museum

Miss Scallan, recently took her third grade pupils from the Brackett school, with Miss Joseph, a student teacher from Bridgewater Teachers' College, on a trip to the Children's Museum, in Jamaica Plain, via a chartered bus. The trip was in preparation for work in the science unit of the class. A moving picture showing how animals live in the summer and also in the winter was much enjoyed by the pupils.

Mrs. Sampson, Heads Red Cross Committee On Blood Donations

Announcement is made that Mrs. Arthur W. Sampson, of 21 Cliff st. has accepted the chairmanship of the blood donation committee of the Arlington branch of the American Red Cross Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet, of Victoria road, will serve as co-chairman.

November 15 and 16 are the dates set for the Red Cross bloodmobile to be in Arlington, at St. John's Episcopal church, at which time donations of blood for Monica Cotter will be received.

At a recent meeting of the committee, held at Mrs. Sampson's home for the purpose of discussing plans for the visit of the bloodmobile, the continuing need of blood in local hospitals and in the military and veterans hospitals of this area, was stressed.

It was pointed out that the Red Cross blood program is designed to assist anyone who needs blood, and that it is provided without charge. To continually supply blood, however, the committee was told that there must be adequate blood supplies on hand to meet the urgent demands, and that supplies can only be maintained through the donations of all healthy persons in the community.

Already appointed to the committee are Edith Winn, Gertrude Redmond, Mrs. Laurence Eaton, Mrs. P. H. Spears, Mrs. Carolyn Reed and Mrs. Nils Alsen. Others will be named later.

An Important Message from Boston Edison Company

The following paragraphs are from a formal communication to the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities by James V. Toner, President, Boston Edison Company, under date of Oct. 14, 1948.

Vote 'YES' FOR LICENSES TUESDAY, NOV. 2

- Prevent the return of Prohibition, the racketeer and lawlessness. Continue in force the orderly Government control of all alcoholic beverages.
- Prevent a rise in your personal income tax. Continue the flow of millions of dollars in taxes paid yearly to the Community, State, and Nation by the Alcoholic Beverage Industry.
- Prevent your personal rights and privileges from being taken away because of your own neglect to vote 'YES' on the 3 alcoholic beverage license questions.
